
Production Date: 27 April 2015
Version 1.0
The Hanuman Dhoka complex is located in Durbar Square, Kathmandu. It consists of five acres and is the former Royal Palace of the Malla Kings. Coordinates: 85.307719 E, 27.703937 N
A structure in the Hanuman Dhoka complex partially collapsed after the recent earthquake. Coordinates: 85.307719 E, 27.703937 N

© CNES (2015), Distribution AIRBUS DS
Built in 1832, Dharahara was a historic nine storey tower in Sundhara, Kathmandu.
Coordinates: 85.311924 E, 27.700568 N
Most of the Dharahara Tower collapsed during the April 2015 earthquake.
Coordinates: 85.311924 E, 27.700568 N
Building in a local Kathmandu neighborhood.
Completely collapsed building in Kathmandu neighborhood.
Multipurpose stadium in Halchowk, Kathmandu.
Coordinates: 85.282523 E, 27.719544 N

Halchowk Stadium of Kathmandu, Pre-Crisis
Stadium used for rescue operations.
Coordinates: 85.282523 E, 27.719544 N
Recreational fields in Chhauni, Kathmandu.
Coordinates: 85.292113 E, 27.707344 N
Fields and pitches used for IDP shelters.
Coordinates: 85.292113 E, 27.707344 N
Rani Pokhari is a historic pond in Kathmandu from the 17th century. Coordinates: 85.315395 E, 27.707818 N
IDP shelters situated in the Memorial Park near Rani Pokhari.
Coordinates: 85.315395 E, 27.707818 N