Damage Assessment in southern Spera district, Khost province as of 24 June 2022

This map illustrates potentially damaged buildings and damaged buildings in Spera district, Khost province of Afghanistan as detected by a NewSat image acquired on 24 June 2022. Within the analyzed area, UNOSAT has identified 49 potentially damaged buildings, 34 damaged buildings and 145 shelters.

This is a preliminary analysis and has not yet been validated in the field. Please send ground feedback to the United Nations Satellite Centre (UNOSAT).