This map presents a satellite-based damage assessment for the affected villages of Nyangdong, Myanmar. Damaged buildings have been identified with WorldView-1 satellite imagery acquired on 23 May 2008 at a spatial resolution of 0.5m. Precipitation (SPOT-V) from 20 December 2007 was also used. This is an initial damage assessment and it may not yet be validated in the field.

Damage Assessment with WorldView-1 Satellite Imagery Acquired 23 May 2008 & SPOT-5 - Acquired on 20 December 2007

Damage Summary for Hpontdawbye Village:
- 256 buildings are likely destroyed or severely damaged
- This represents 100% of all village buildings

SATELLITE DAMAGE ASSESSMENT
- Building: Severely Damaged / Destroyed
- Building: Likely in post-cyclone imagery but high probability of destruction due to severe storm surge last season
- Building: No Visible Damage
- Building: Not Assessed (Outside Post-Cyclone Imagery)

SATELLITE IMAGE REFERENCE

Map Scale for A1: 1:5,000

UNOSAT satellite solutions for all
Contact Information: info@unosat.org
24/7 Hotline: +41 76 457 4998
www.unosat.org