Landslide impact analysis in Neves town, Lembá district, São Tomé province, São Tomé and Príncipe as of 23 Jan 2022.

This map illustrates satellite-detected landslides/mudflow in Neves town, Lembá district, São Tomé province, São Tomé and Príncipe as observed in Pleiades Satellite imagery acquired on 23 January 2022 at 10:12 local time.

Within this analyzed area, about 10 structures appear to be affected, and 63 structures are potentially affected.

This is a preliminary analysis and has not yet been validated in the field. Please send ground feedback to United Nations Satellite Centre (UNOSAT).

See at insets of before and after for close up view

Legend

- Town
- Affected structure
- Potentially affected structure
- Other road
- Primary road
- Permanent water
- Landslide extent [23 Jan 2022]